

Data Sheet

RNLI Barry Island

We continued our relationship with the RNLI by constructing their new base at Barry Island, a facility shared with ABP. The project consisted of the demolition of the existing facility and the new build construction of a state of the art office and crew facility on the waterfront at Barry Island. The project works were carried out under a collaborative NEC4 form of contract, which ensured a smooth contract duration and handover

Architect—WSP | Project Manager —McNaughts